The Ten Commandments: A Fresh Look With Rabbi Eliot Malomet

Mondays at 8 P.M.

Nov. 27, Dec. 18, Jan. 22, Feb. 26, Mar. 26

(No fee for Temple members; $10 for non members)

You think you know them ... People claim to follow them ... But it's doubtful that many have taken more than a cursory look at them, let alone examine them as deeply as they deserve.

During this series of classes we are going to take a fresh look at the central text that lies at the heart of the covenant between God and Israel. Our goal is to change the way we think about this text, and thereby change the way we think about ourselves.

Welcome New Members

The HPCT-CAE community is happy to welcome its newest member:

Valeri Weidman lives in Highland Park. She has one grown son. Valeri is presently a Librarian with the Highland Park Library.

A legacy is a promise for the future. What better way to help ensure our Jewish legacy than making an investment in our Shul.

Growing up, belonging to a synagogue was a way of life taken for granted. Being an active participant included supporting our synagogue financially.

Included in my parents' will was a donation to the synagogue.

Realizing the importance of this investment, we have made a pledge in our wills to our Shul.

The Shul is a very important part of our lives. We want to contribute toward making sure it is here for future generations.

Please join us in making a pledge to the future of HPCT-CAE.

— Rosalyn and Daniel Shifrin
